

Charitable Trust contributions to the school

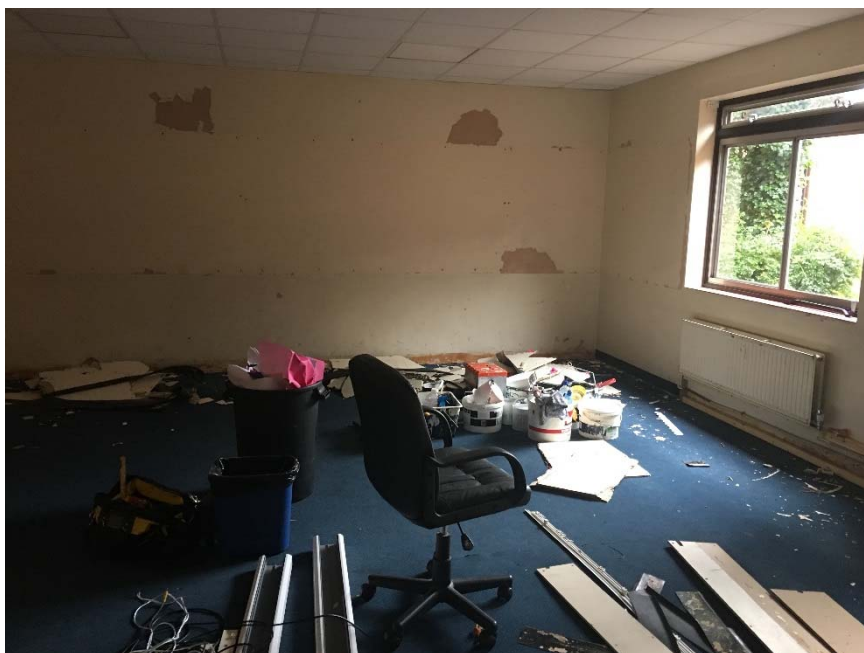

In 2017 the school decided that there was a need to convert one of the smaller classrooms into a bespoke computer room.

All the work was carried out by the in-house site team and IT team over the summer holidays

The Charitable Trust made this possible with a grant of £4000 to cover materials.

Below are the before and after pictures which capture the changes.

Before.

After.

