Important

Any child with an existing claim for free school meals on 1st April 2018 or gaining eligibility after 1st April 2018 will be protected against losing free school meals during the Universal Credit roll out period. This is expected to complete in March 2022. Once the Universal Credit is fully rolled out, the information provided on this form will be used to check ongoing entitlement for children still of school age. Any existing claimants who no longer meet the eligibility criteria will continue to receive free school meals until the end of their current phase of education (i.e. primary or secondary). If you have children who have an existing free school meals claim and are therefore protected, if you are now applying for another child and are not eligible, they will not be awarded free school meals as well. The protection applies to individual children, not families. In order to perform checks we need up to date details. It is therefore essential for you to let us know of any changes of details of the person receiving the qualifying benefit.

How do I qualify?

Parents/carers who receive any of the following are entitled to free school meals:

- Universal Credit with an annual net earned income of no more than £7,400.
